Amy is special counsel in Harwood Andrews' dispute resolution and litigation practice area.

Amy applies a pragmatic, commercially focused approach to assist clients to avoid and resolve disputes.

Amy has expertise in advising municipal councils, statutory authorities, institutional and business clients in relation to risk management, governance and compliance matters.

Having worked on secondment to a municipal council and in government roles overseas, Amy understands the operational needs of public sector and institutional clients and the solution-based, strategically focused approach they require.

Personal involvement and interest in family business and agriculture also gives Amy insight into the needs of those clients.

AMY'S PROFESSIONAL COMMITMENTS INCLUDE:

- ◇ Committee for Geelong - Leaders for Geelong Alumni
- ◇ Member of the Law Institute of Victoria
- ◇ Member of the Geelong Law Association
